Page 1 - What you need to know

The Studio Tour is open to artists/artisans from the community of Tobermory south to the Oliphant Line (Bruce County Road 13). All participating artists are required to fulfill the following criteria:

1. The artist must exclusively exhibit only their own works of art. This encompasses the use of a wide variety of mediums but not works from ready-made kits or patterns. Reproductions such as cards and giclee prints of the Artist's own original works are accepted.
2. Guest artists (no community location restrictions) are welcome but must exhibit at a participating artist's studio or a group display location and must already be a member or join the Bruce Peninsula Society of Artists.
3. Artists may sign up for the Studio Tour and the Christmas Festival of Art (if desired) with this application. Cost of the Christmas show is reduced for those signing up for the Tour as well. Those wanting to do just the Christmas Festival of Art can find a separate application at www.brucepeninsulaart.ca
4. Studio Tour participation fees are per artist (not location) and cover one artist and one additional artist (i.e. family member) who lives at that location. Any additional family members and/or guest artists must pay the full fee. Christmas Festival of Art fees cover one table per artist. Artists may share a table. Additional tables may be available depending on space availability. All fees are payable to the Bruce Peninsula Society of Artists. Note that BPSA membership, if not already paid must be submitted at the same time as payment for the Tour. Note that BPSA membership runs from April 1 to March 31st.
 - Fees for 2020
 - Studio Tour - one artist - $75 + $30(BPSA membership) - total $105.00
 - Studio Tour - two artists living at same location - $75 + $45(BPSA membership) - total of $120.00
 - Christmas Festival of Art as well as Studio Tour - add $20.00 to payment per artist (artists may share a table)
5. New Participants: New artists must be juried into the Tour by the jurying committee. Artists may submit digital images (see below) or photos with the application (or arrange to have original art displayed at the jurying meeting). Membership to the Bruce Peninsula Society of Artists (BPSA) is a requirement. Annual membership fee is $30 per individual or $45 per family (see fees above). Artists will be notified of acceptance no later than March 27, 2020.
6. All new artists must email (resolution 300 dpi min) or mail (3 high quality photographs of your original work) images for the brochure with your application as directed below. If you are a returning artist and would like a new image for the brochure (highly recommended!!), please email or mail as directed below.
7. Signage is available to lead people to your studio. Signage must be put up no earlier than the evening before the Tour and taken down immediately following closing on Sunday.
